AUSTIN

HELLO LONGHORNS

Since The University of Texas at Austin opened its doors to 221 students in 1883, it has grown to become one of the largest and most respected institutions in the country. Hundreds of thousands of students have traversed its halls including Walter Cronkite, Michael Dell, Wes Anderson, Neil deGrasse Tyson, Janis Joplin and of course, Longhorn football's biggest fan Matthew McConaughey. Tour the original 40 acres and wake up some of UT's oldest residents. The eyes of Texas—and lamp posts, mailboxes and parking meters—are upon you! Hook 'em Horns!
